

Information for all clients regarding the covid-19 outbreak. We still care for you.

Stand: 18.03.2020

The Jobcenter Emden is not open for personal contact to protect the health of everybody and to reduce the risk of infections with the corona virus. Please do not worry about your payments. They will continue.

How can I contact the Jobcenter Emden?

If you have urgent questions, you can call the hotline +49 4921 808650.

Due to the massive appearance of incoming calls there is only limited access to it.

You can also contact us via e-mail jobcenter-emden@jobcenter-ge.de

Do you have an appointment?

All appointments are cancelled. We will send you a new invitation later. Now there are no consultations or mediations. You do not have to cancel the appointment and there are no disadvantages. There are no legal consequences and sanctions. Your payments will continue.

What about my payments?

Your payments will continue. We work on your applications, even if we cannot see you.

The paying out is secured - transfers will continue!

Do you want to apply for unemployment benefit II / Arbeitslosengeld II (subsistence income)?

Please call the hotline +49 4921 808800 which is open for you on Monday to Thursday from 8 am - 4 pm and on Friday from 8 am - 12.30 pm.

There you will be guaranteed a consultation for your application and the necessary documents.

You can fill out the application form online and deliver it via the mailbox at the Jobcenter Emden.
